PEAKQUEST

Adventure & Trekking Website

PROJECT DOCUMENTATION

Introduction

PeakQuest is a responsive, adventure-themed website designed to introduce visitors to trekking routes, trip schedules, essential equipment, safety guidelines, adventure packages, and outdoor photography. Its dark navy layout and sky-blue highlights create a clear, modern visual identity while keeping the content easy to explore.

Features, Applications & Conclusion

Features

- Responsive navigation menu with links to each main section.
- Hero banner with a mountain background and an Explore Treks button.
- Three trekking route cards showing difficulty, duration, distance, and descriptions.
- Trip schedules for a one-day trek and weekend camping.
- Interactive equipment checklist and practical safety guidelines.
- Three sample adventure packages with prices and package-selection alerts.
- Outdoor image gallery, hover effects, and a matching footer.
- HTML provides structure, CSS controls styling and layout, and JavaScript handles package-selection messages.

Applications

The website can be used as a student web-development project, a prototype for a trekking or camping organizer, a sample travel-information portal, or a starting point for a real adventure booking website.

Conclusion

PeakQuest brings important trekking information together in one organized interface. It demonstrates the use of semantic HTML, modern CSS layouts, responsive design, image presentation, and a simple JavaScript interaction. For real-world use, the sample routes, prices, and booking alerts would need to be connected to verified information and a proper booking system.
